Volume 15 Issue 10		"IF NOT NOW, WHEN? IF NOT US, WHO?"		May 2013
SUPREME KNIGHT	Carl Anderson	Editor: Ed Petrovic 410-679-4179 - e.petrovic@verizon.net

DISTRICT DEPUTY	Ron Perzinski

"An extraordinary life is all about the daily, continuous improvements in the area of your life that matter most"- Robin Sharma

Brothers and ladies, this is a wonderful quote that can apply to many different aspects of your life. I read this quote in the book, "The Miracle Morning". This is a terrific book that helps all of us "busy people" to excel in everything we do by just taking some extra time in the morning to focus on our day in front of us. I can tell you from the example of the great work the brothers and ladies of our council perform, that a quote like this is being lived by many of us. The Knights of Columbus is an organization that by continuing to improve and strengthen our relationship with God, we can live extraordinary lives. The Knights also is an area where you can build strong friendships and love one another. As in anything you do, you get out of it what you put into it. The great men and women of our council are always trying to live that extraordinary life for God, by continuously improving and using the most out of their Knights of Columbus membership.

I am always testing and asking myself questions. These questions may help you become closer to God and become more involved in our council's extraordinary activities. Am I doing the best that I can be as Knight of Columbus? Am I helping the brothers and ladies of my council do God's work? Am I focusing on God's plan for me by being involved in my Church community?

As your Grand Knight, I am living an extraordinary life just by being involved in this great organization with all of you. I strive to be an extraordinary Grand Knight, continuously wanting to improve the experience of the Knights with every member of our council. I want every one of our 270+ members to be active members in our council. I pray every week for those who are not active, to re-engage in our council and make the most out of their membership. I thank God for allowing me to be the leader of such wonderful men and women. This is your opportunity to do something extraordinary! Stay active as a member, grow your relationship with God, and serve Him daily!

Vivat Jesus!

Who are You?

Who are you most like? Are you Peter, Thomas, Judas? Are you Jesus, Francis, Theresa? Are you James? Or, are you, you? That is who I think God wants you to be. He already has all those others. Another of the same would be a bit much, don't you agree? Why not be yourself? Why not teach others to be themselves too? I think this might be one of the ways to become holy.

Please do not misunderstand me. It is good for us to emulate the saints: Mary, the apostles, even Jesus himself. First and foremost, we must be what God created us to be. Why not just be ourselves? Each of us is born with the attributes God wants us to have and use through life. When we are baptized, we receive the graces and the presence of the Holy Spirit to use these attributes to become holier. The rest of the sacraments help us to perfect our relationship with God and live out our vocations. It's up to us. God wants us to be what he created us to be – just plain old us!

Peace and All Good!
Deacon Jim

April Activities

Greg Ward, Chancellor & Activity Director

A prayer service for the Unborn Child dedication was held immediately following the 9:00am daily Mass on March 8th. John Carroll Assembly's Color Corps the Mass then processed with the on foot to the memorial directly in Francis de Sales Worship Center. Wible and the 50 people in prayerfully rededicated the memorial by the Fr. Maurice J. Wolfe Council, 2000. Keith Arndt, our Council's Activity Director was instrumental in and implementation in putting very important and meaningful and a re-following the The Archbishop participated in congregation front of the St Fr. Chuck attendance initially erected 11372, back in Culture-of-Life the planning together this activity.

The St. Francis de Sales Pre-School Touch-a-Truck activity was held on a beautiful Saturday morning in April;

Various trucks from around our community were put on display for the children to experience, learn and board. The Abingdon Fire Company brought a ladder truck as well as a chemical decontamination vehicle. Other trucks at this event included; an Army jeep from the Vietnam War, an off road jeep, a few dump trucks, a camper, a tow truck and a host of other trucks. To say this was well attended is an understatement; it was estimated that over 300 people attended this event. Our Council donated the hotdogs and refreshments with the proceeds going to the school. After a few trips back and forth to the food store to keep up with the crowd's demands we were able to donate over $500.00 to St. Francis de Sales. However, after all were fed we weren't able to collect a morsel let alone 12 baskets of food.

My dear Brothers,

To our new Brother Knights, let me explain the Shining Armor Award that is available to you alone. The Shining Armor award is only available to those men who are in their first year as a Knight. To qualify for this award you must be involved in at least 3 council activities, attend at least 3 council business meetings, receive your Second and Third degree, meet with the council's insurance representative and finally recruit one new member. Your Grand Knight can obtain a qualification card for you to track your progress on these 5 requirements. Upon achieving this award you will be presented with a lapel pin in the shape of a shield that is silver tone with the Knights of Columbus symbol and the words "Shining Armor Award". Please see your Grand Knight for more information.

All councils are to hold elections for new Council Officers between May 15 and June 15. Your Grand Knight has appointed a nominating committee to prepare a full slate of Officers for the new fraternal year. If you are asked to serve the council as an Officer or Program or Activity Chairman, please give it your full consideration and agree to serve your Brother Knights.

I look forward to meeting you at your Council meeting.

Vivat Jesus
Mike Sallese
