GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

"Message from the Grand Knight"

My Brothers All,

Wow – What a glorious evening. Our Council's 22nd installation was a night to remember. From the ceremony of the installation to the festivities of the reception, I know that all in attendance were inspired to carry Jesus' message of love and peace to all mankind.

Although my wife has always looked upon me as "worthy", it will takes a little getting used to this title in the context of our Council. That being said, however, let me share several goals that I have established for my administration:

1. Improve the quality of the contact information we have for each of our members
2. Reach out to each member throughout the course of the year
3. Reduce the number of business meeting to 12
4. Hold 6 social nights throughout the year
5. Conduct at least 6 formation (1st) degrees throughout the year
6. Increase our membership by 20
7. Continue to provide award level activities in all 6 disciplines that the Knights support

That is quite a high mark of excellence to establish for the 2016/17 fraternal year. I'm sure however, that with your support and prayers we should have no difficulty attaining each and every goal.

Vivat Jesus

Associate Chaplain's Report

So Who's Happy?

There is a reading from Exodus that has always made me chuckle just a bit. While the Israelite people were in slavery in Egypt they begged God to get them out of slavery. When Moses got them out of slavery then they complained that they did not have enough food. They said to Moses and Aaron that it would be better if they died in Egypt rather than die of famine in the desert.

When the Lord God heard what they were grumbling about, he sent all the quail they could eat every evening. There were more quail than anyone could ever use; in the morning when the dew dried up there were flakes that could be crushed and made into a flour that could be made into bread. The Israelites had plenty of food from that day forward. They were happy for a while, but soon they complained that they were tired of quail and the bread made from the flakes of flour God sent them.

Isn't that just like humans? We get what we ask for and then we find out that we are not too happy with what we have been given. Sometimes we are never satisfied are we? I think we can gather from this story that perhaps we need to be happy with the simpler things in life. It might be simple food or a simple vacation or perhaps trying to simplify our lives with prayer and good works. I believe that if we truly work at it, we can have simpler lives. I also believe we will be happier and more content. It might just be worth a try, don't you think?

Peace and All Good

PROGRAM DIRECTOR'S REPORT

What's Going on in Our Council?

Your activity directors had their first meeting of the fraternal year and there are some new and exciting activities planned for the upcoming year. Our Council installation was well-attended and the follow-on dinner and program was enjoyed by all. The Maryland State Secretary, Dale Trott, represented the State Deputy, Steve Cohen, and Past State Deputy Steve Adamczyk also attended. We will be conducting a corporate Mass on the Fifth Sunday, July 31st, using a new format. Please below for details. Both the Ravens beverage stand and the Tootsie Roll programs get underway in August. Contact Rob Hardy (robhardy@gmail.com) to schedule certification training for the Ravens.

Church Steve Herpel 410-569-8278 olmchssoccer@yahoo.com .

In addition to the fifth Sunday Mass, Steve Herpel will be coordinating our efforts at the Parish Picnic on Sunday, August 21st. The Council will provide and cook hot dogs and burgers to supplement the potluck contributions of parishioners.

Culture of Life Allen Siegel 631-220-3425 allen.w.siegel@gmail.com

Allen has some new ideas, extending the Culture of Life program beyond neo-natal and early childhood. As a pastor at Upper Chesapeake Hospital, he has become aware of a significant problem with senior suicides in Harford County and will be hosting a parish presentation on the subject in September.

Community Bill Hengemihle 410-539-5253 whhengemihle@verizon.net.

Bill will be coordinating our second annual ice cream social on August 28th at the Catholic Charities senior residence in Abingdon. Ice cream and live music will be presented for the enjoyment of the residents.

Family Steve Buddenbohn 443-895-0374 sbuddenbohn@aol.com.

Sunday, July 31st is the fifth Sunday of the year. We plan to do something a bit different this time. We ask that all Knights and their families attend the 9:00 Mass. We intend to gather outside of the Narthex and, led by the Fourth Degree Color Corps, proceed into the Worship Center and sit together as a group. Be sure to wear your Green shirts! This will be an excellent chance to demonstrate the family nature of the Knights as we worship together.

Youth Jeff Gutowski 410-925-1762 jgutowskiwtsb@gmail.com

Jeff will be coordinating the Annual Jerry Meany Youth Fishing Tournament on Saturday, July 23. The fishing expedition is always followed up by hot dogs and presentation of trophies at the Knights Hall. Volunteers are need to help cook the hot dogs

Council Ken O'Brien 410-652-1509 kobrien001@verizon.net

Ken will be assisting in the Council Golf Tournament coming up on Monday, August 22nd. Foursomes and hole sponsors are still welcome.

We have two very important fundraisers coming up. On Monday, August 22nd our council will be holding a golf tournament at Winter's Run Golf Club. See information in the newsletter as we need sponsorships and golfers. Save the date for Saturday, October 15th as we will hold another bull and oyster roast at Joppa Magnolia Fire Hall. Ravens Report for the August 2016 Newsletter:

Our first Ravens game is next Thursday, August 11th. I'm looking to line up support for these games as early as possible. If you are team trained then please let me know what games you are available to work this season. The dates I need workers are: 8/11, 8/27, 9/11, 10/2, 10/9, 11/6, 11/10, 11/27, 12/4 and 12/18.

Some things are changing this year regarding the Ravens. First the bad news. We must notify Aramark at least 72 hours prior to a cancellation. Otherwise it is a $300 fine out of our next check. If we do not notify them within 24 hours of a cancellation then it can result in contract termination. On the bright side, we no longer need to go downstairs to get our shirts. We will need to let them know in advance of the game who is coming and what their shirt size is. All of the uniforms are brand new this year and will be provided to us directly to our beer portable - no more going up and down stairs to retrieve our shirts. We also no longer have to go downstairs to return shirts and make our final monetary drop for the night. This will enable us to leave a good 15-20 earlier than before.

A new program they are running this year is that any worker who is spotted doing extraordinary work will receive a card that (s)he can turn in for a prize and will also be entered into a drawing to win signed Ravens paraphernalia, SuperBowl tickets, and other cool stuff. All in all there's a lot of great stuff going on this year. I hope you'll be able to join us and help out with our council's second biggest fundraiser.

FOURTH DEGREE MESSAGE

Sir Knights,

The Assembly's first patriotic activity of the fraternal year was the Fourth of July picnic for the veterans at the VA hospital on Loch Raven Boulevard. Thanks to the excellent leadership of PFN Keith Arndt, we were again able to provide hamburgers, hot dogs, fried chicken, salads and desserts to these men who have served their country.

All members of the Assembly should have received their copy of the bi-monthly newsletter by now. If you have not, it is probably because we do not have your current email address. Please provide your email to me at baltobob@outlook.com or to Keith Arndt at kmaba123@yahoo.com. The newsletter contains valuable information, not the least of which is the schedule of meetings for the coming year. We try to rotate our meeting locations to encourage participation by members of all four councils. Please attend as many meetings as you can. This is the best way to get to know your fellow Sir Knights and to show your support of the assembly's patriotic activities.

Our Installation of Officers will be on Saturday, August 27 beginning with the 5 o'clock Mass at St John the Evangelist Parish. There will be a dinner in the Knights' Hall after. All Sir Knights and their spouses are welcome but we need to know how many people to expect by August 19. Contact Bob Renshaw at baltobob@outlook.com or 410-592-8406 if you will be attending the reception Brothers all I bring you greeting from our worthy state deputy Steven M Cohen.

I would like to congratulate the council again on a great Installation. The halls decorations where very nice.

As we move forward as a Council and District I believe we should all keep communications open. The four Councils can help each other with attending there activities . Membership is very important each Council should be scheduling degrees.

Insurance Advisor's Report

"Think You Are Too Old for Coverage? Maybe Not"

Sometimes it is easy to overlook the simplest of things.

Take, for example, the beneficiaries on your life insurance policies. If your policy was applied for and issued several years ago, it may very well be that the person you originally selected as the beneficiary is no longer the person you would want to receive the policy proceeds. If you bought the policy when you were single, for example, you may have named your parents as beneficiaries. If you have since married, your policies should be updated to reflect your spouse as beneficiary. Maybe you've had children since, who are not named on the policies.

Most people list a primary beneficiary, who is specifically designated as the first in priority to receive policy proceeds. We also encourage the naming of a contingent beneficiary, an alternate person designated to receive policy proceeds, usually in the event that the original beneficiary pre-deceases the insured.

I routinely call all of my policyholders for annual review appointments, usually near the anniversary date of your policy – that is, the date it was originally issued. One of the matters that I'll discuss during this review is the status of your beneficiary designations. If they need updating, and they often do, I can complete the paperwork during that appointment.

I look forward to meeting with each of you to discuss your family's needs.

God's Message for This Month

Do you believe that God answers our prayers? By Dr. Steve Wisniewski Lector

Consider this, does God hear our personal prayers and love us enough to respond? Yes, if you're listening. Keep in mind, what's more important, is when, where, and "how" you pray.

Prayer serves many different purposes for many different people. Prayer is an open intimate and personal conversation with God. Prayer invites God into our hearts, by simply talking with him, and then...this is important...taking time to listen and discover just how God has responded to us.

God responses vary in many different ways. God may respond through fulfillment of our wishes and desires by granting us what we ask for even if it appears to us to be an impossible request. Think about miracles for a moment.

God's response can come as an intuitive solution to a problem we face.

For me, God responded by optimizing my will to succeed. When I began my weight loss journey two years ago, I was given an ultimatum. My Doctor said I had to lose 100 pounds or die. Wow, besides the fear that statement can incite, losing that much weight seemed an impossible task. I knew I could not do it alone, so I began to pray for "forgiveness and help" and asked God for his help.

A few months later, he guided me to the Army Wellness Center and introduced me to an angel Mrs. Maria Sorrells, who became my weight loss manager, trainer and life coach. With Maria's dedicated help, in less than 8 months and following her nutritional guidance, diet and exercise program, together we achieved my impossible task, and said good bye to 104 pounds of killer weight.

But here's the best part of God's angel Maria...together, we put my diabetes in remission according to my Endocrinologist. All the important numbers and sugar levels are within their respective ranges, we relieved my hypertension and lowered my blood pressure.

God not only answered my prayers, but did it through a beautiful, awesome, kind, compassionate, and understanding human being. Leading me to Maria and bringing her into my life, demonstrated his divine power in action. God knew that she would help me and that she would stay with me through thick and thin. Now, we still see each other in weekly meetings as I continue this life style journey. In reality, God sent me a guardian angel.

Sometimes, we don't see or hear his answer. This "no," may be because he feels we are not ready, or perhaps it's a test of our faith. We have to remember that faith is not for asking favors. Be persistent and remember God is always there and listening. Give God a chance and ask him for something totally impossible and he will help you when he feels you are ready. Remember the most important thing you can do when God answers your prayer request is to thank him. Thanking God gives merit and trust to your faith, shows loving appreciation, reverence, and respect.

I believe God answers your prayers....do you? Next month there will be another inspiring message from God

My Brothers All, Happy beginning to the next Fraternal Year. We should all be up and running on Programs and Membership recruitment. Plans should already be in place and the execution starts now. Remember, we do not take the summer off from what we do as Knights. Those same people and organizations that need our help and service do not take the summer off. So if that is true, neither should we. My thanks to all those who assisted with a very successful Leadership Seminar, especially Paul Weber, the Secretary to the State deputy who handled all of the arrangements at Solomons. For those that missed it, you missed a lot. Information that you need to have a successful year, being with your Brother Knights and bonding, and meeting the new team which will be leading the State Council are all things you missed. Please plan to attend next year. Building the Domestic Church while Strengthening our Parish is truly the highlight of this Fraternal Year. This program is not an option, it is to be supported by all councils. Many of your councils already participate in programs in this area and don't even know. For example, the ICON program is part of this area, Praying the Rosary on the fifth Sunday is part of this program, including our parish in what we do is part of this program.

Please get with your Pastor and talk about this special program if you have not already done so. We are going to have a very busy year. Keep informed as to what is going on. Besides mailings and information from the District Deputies, we are starting a large Social Media campaign to get the word out. Visit our newly designed website at www.kofc-md.org. to keep abreast of all that we are doing. I look forward to seeing that all Councils in the Jurisdiction of Maryland are successful and continue to be successful. If you need assistance in any area, I am sure that the State Council has someone to assist; just contact us.

Syria, Christians and the Future of Pluralism

by Supreme Knight Carl A. Anderson

Government leaders have a responsibility to preserve Christianity in the Middle East

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following column was co-written by Melkite Catholic Archbishop Jean-Clément Jeanbart of Aleppo, Syria. An extended version was published May 27 on realclearreligion.org.

THE CHRISTIANS of Syria – together with those in other troubled areas of the Middle East – have been forgotten. As many have stayed in their homes or become urban refugees outside of the U.N. camp system, they have received little aid and even less international attention. Their situation is dire, and whether they will survive at all depends on events in the next several months.

If ISIS' theocratic intolerance takes hold, Christians will face an impossible choice: flee, submit to forced conversion or be killed. If Christianity – adhered to by 10 percent of Syria's population before the civil war – disappears, so will any hope of pluralism. The security implications of this for the world should be self-evident. A Syria without Christians, the historical mediators in that country, will make the region less safe and the world less safe.

It is time for the international community to take action, not only to ensure that genocide survivors in Syria get the aid they need, but that they also receive equal protection under the law and are not reduced to a second class status.

Christians and Muslims alike often think of Christianity as a Western religion. Christianity flourished in Europe, particularly during its second millennium, and this tends to shape our understanding. But by many measures, the Middle East was just as Christian as Europe during the first millennium after Christ, if not more so.

The first decades of Christianity were decidedly Middle Eastern, with Syria playing a central role in the New Testament. St. Paul didn't convert those living in Syria, but rather went there to persecute them. After his own conversion, he was accepted into the Church by Ananias, a Syrian Christian (cf. Acts 9:10-19).

Christianity in this region was a major missionary force for centuries, spreading the faith not only to Europe but to China, India and Tibet.

Six centuries after Christianity took root, Islam appeared. During times of relative Christian and Muslim harmony, the two religions forged a common history in the region, with Eastern Christianity contributing enormously to the scholarship of the Muslim world.

In his book The Lost History of Christianity, historian Philip Jenkins writes: "It was Christians ... who preserved and translated the cultural inheritance of the ancient world – the science, philosophy, and medicine – and who transmitted it to centers like Baghdad and Damascus. Much of what we call Arab scholarship was in reality Syriac, Persian, and Coptic. ... Syriac-speaking Christian scholars brought the works of Aristotle to the Muslim world. ... Syriac Christians even make the first reference to the efficient Indian numbering system that we know today as 'Arabic,' and long before this technique gained currency among Muslim thinkers. ... Such were the Christian roots of the Arabic golden age."

Christians in the region are now being left with nothing, and their historic achievements remain relatively unknown in both the Middle East and the West. But today, with more than 2 billion Christians in the world and instant communication, there can be no excuse for ignorance about what is occurring in Syria.

While scholarship can recover aspects of a “lost history,” only the international community can prevent a lost future. Targeted for genocide by ISIS and related groups, the situation of Syrian Christians has become precarious. What happens in the next few months could well determine their uncertain future.

What is at stake is not one of the branches of Christianity, but its roots. And the decisions made today won’t just affect Syria, but the entire world.

Vivat Jesus!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS®

Dear Brother Knights:

All citizens of the United States have the right to vote. All Catholic citizens should become active and informed participants in the political life of their local community and their country. This includes making sure that all Catholic citizens who are eligible to vote are registered to do so.

In this important election year, the Order is asking you to please consider participating in The Knights of Columbus Nonpartisan National Voter Registration Program. This is a nonpartisan parish-based program that enables members of the Knights of Columbus to help Catholic citizens register and exercise their right to vote.
