GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

"VOLUNTEER- TIME, TALENT, AND TREASURE"

Hello Brother Knights. It's unbelievable that this month marks the end of my service to you as your Grand Knight. When I look back on the past year I have many great memories of our service to God and our fellow men.

First let me thank all of my fellow Knights for your support throughout this year. Your many hours of service to our church, families, youth and community are much appreciated. Of special note is the dedication of our 2016/17 officers, activity directors, newsletter publisher and membership director. Thanks for your assistance, we are a great team and could not have done this without your time and support. And finally, a big round of applause for our Bingo team. You are a life savior!!

And finally, in this, my closing article, I wish everyone good health, much happiness, and a great year under Grand Knight Mike Novak. I'm certain that the experience that GK Mike brings to his new position will elevate the Fr. Maurice J. Wolfe Council to greater glory in your service to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Love One Another

The Gospel of John tells us that if we keep Jesus' commandments, we remain in his love. Jesus remains in his Father's love because he has kept his Father's commandments. Jesus goes on to tell us that where we are in the love of his Father, our joy will be complete. His commandment is to love one another as he loves us.

Just think about what that means. To love someone is to make a conscious decision to do the right thing in all our relationships. It means that we do the best we can to serve those who are struggling monetarily, physically or mentally. It may be as simple as offering a kind word to someone, making a donation, or actually serving someone in person. If we think about the life of Jesus, we quickly realize that he spent most of this time with those no one else wanted; those that society had taken advantage of or had just plain forgotten. The downtrodden in our lives could be the person sitting across from us at this very moment or it might be someone who comes to our outreach for a bag of food. The key is to find those who need us and just love them.

May you know that God is with you always and that he is ready to help you to learn to love each other!

Peace and All Good!

Invite your neighbors to join for an evening of good, Italian food in support of a good cause. Tickets are available after Masses and in the parish office during the week. Although our good works and charitable activities continue
- throughout the year, as summer approaches we slow down a bit to permit more family time on those summer weekends.
- On June 17th we'll be hosting the annual John Myers/Leo Bernt Horseshoe tournament.
- The Fourth of July will find us spending a few hours at the Loch Raven VA Hospital assisting the Fourth Degree Assembly in providing a BBQ lunch for patients and staff. And, of course, we will be conducting our installation of officers followed by a dinner on Kilduff Hall on July 15th.

I want to give a special thanks to Keith Arndt and talk a little about the activities and activity directors. We started the fraternal year with an outstanding youth fishing tournament at which we doubled our youth participation. We also began our 5th Sunday celebrations during mass and signed up 3 candidates for Knighthood. Shortly after, and still during the summer, we rekindled our golf tournament raising more than $4,000. We also began the annual Tootsie Roll charity activity raising close to $3,000 for John Archer School. As is the case annually, the fall and winter is the time of the year when we kick our activities into high gear. We sponsored our 1st ever vocation awareness evening for our confirmation classes. One of the highlights of the year is always the memorial mass during which we remember our deceased Brothers. We conducted a clergy appreciation dinner. We also sponsored a new awareness seminar for dementia patient caregivers. And finally we counseled our parishioners with advice about the preparation of advanced directives. We finished our fraternal year with our annual convention during which our council received 1st place recognition for our Installation Degree Team. Lee Eder, John Young and Ray Traube were also recognized as the best ceremonial officers in the State of Maryland. Congratulations Brothers!! The council also received two 3rd place awards for the Surge with Service Programs. Congratulations are due to all our incredible activity directors and Keith Arndt for his service as Chancellor and Program Director for the Council in 2017.

Thank you so much!

INSURANCE ADVISOR'S REPORT

The Sandwich Generation

Edward O'Keefe, CLU, ChFC, CASL, FICF, LUTCF

Caught in the Middle - The Sandwich Generation

If you have children and aging family members, you could find yourself in the Sandwich Generation. Mom and Dad may be able to live on their own but need some help on a regular basis. Managing their needs can be a job of its own ... all while remembering to pick up your little ones from their baseball practice or dance lesson.

Sandwich Generation caregiving requires an extraordinary amount of understanding and management skills to adequately juggle schedules, finances and the dynamics of this reverse caretaking role. What can you do to prepare?

- Consider location. Do you live close-by so that you can help? Or is the distance such that you won't be able to help as much as you'd like and you'll need to find other options?
- Consider others. Family members, neighbors, or church families may be willing to help manage some of the care of your loved one(s).
- Consider long-term care options before they are actually needed. Some adult children even pay their parents' premiums to help protect their own savings.
- Consider whether life insurance or annuities can be a financial strategy to help manage some of the issues that can arise – either for your aging family members now or to protect your own children from your becoming a financial burden down the road.

Ask us for additional information. There may be financial strategies that can be utilized in balancing your aging parent's needs, the needs of your children, and your needs for the future.

FINDING JESUS IN THE MYSTERIES OF THE ROSARY

5/1/2017

Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori

THE ROSARY SPIRITUALLY ENRICHES US AS WE MEDITATE ON THE LIFE OF CHRIST THROUGH THE EYES OF MARY

DURING A RECENT visit to New Haven, I was asked to bless several pallets loaded with more than 30,000 rosaries. In fact, I bless large numbers of rosaries whenever I'm at the Supreme Council headquarters. The reason is that a rosary is given to every Knight of Columbus when he becomes a member. I still have the rosary I was given when I became a Knight in 1986 and a few newer ones to spare. A rosary is "standard operating equipment" — if I might use that phrase — for every Knight. Members of the Knights and their families are encouraged by the Order to pray the rosary daily. Indeed, every Catholic should try to pray the rosary frequently. And what better month than May — dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary — for us to revisit this devotion.

SPIRITUAL MEDICINE

By word and example, Pope Francis certainly encourages us to pray the rosary. The Holy Father prays 15 decades of the rosary daily and often can be seen praying it in public. He has even written a pocket-sized book of meditations on the mysteries of the rosary. Through these easy-to-read reflections, Pope Francis invites us to ask the help of Mary so that our hearts might be prepared to enter into the mysteries of Christ's life.

The pope also talks about the rosary in his addresses and homilies. In one Angelus address, for instance, he called the rosary "spiritual medicine ... for the heart, the soul and the whole of life." On another occasion, he pulled a rosary from his pocket, held it up, and asked the people if they too had rosaries. Then, he asked if they merely carry the rosary in their pockets or if they actually pray it!

We might ask why it is that popes, great saints and pastors, and masters of the spiritual life are nearly unanimous in urging us to pray the rosary. Many others have answered that question more convincingly than I ever could. Yet, emboldened by the Blessed Mother's love for me, I am willing to try! And I'd like to take my cue from a prayer that is often recited at the end of the rosary. It goes like this:

“O God, whose only begotten Son, by his life, death and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal salvation: Grant, we beseech thee, that while meditating on these mysteries of the most holy rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may both imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through Christ our Lord. Amen.”

Let's consider two phrases in that prayer: 1) “meditating on these mysteries of the most holy rosary” and 2) “imitate what they [the mysteries of the rosary] contain and obtain what they promise.” I believe that these two phrases can help deepen our understanding of the rosary and motivate us to pray it daily.

First, this concluding prayer reminds us that the rosary is a prayer for meditation on the mysteries of the life of Christ. In a daily Mass homily, Pope Francis said that prayer is not mindlessly repeating words “like a parrot!” The rosary, too, is not merely a matter of saying Our Fathers and Hail Marys. Rather, when we address the Blessed Mother using the words of the archangel Gabriel — “Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you!” (Lk 1:28) — she calms our spirit and leads us to Jesus. She helps us enter into the “mysteries” of her Son's life.

THE PROMISE OF JOY

When we refer to the “mysteries” of the rosary, we do not mean something that is difficult or even impossible to explain. Rather, the word “mysteries” refers to events in the earthly life of Christ that reveal the saving work of our heavenly Father. Mary, who shared in these events like no one else, guides us through the incarnation, birth and childhood of Jesus (joyful mysteries); through the events of Jesus' public life that manifested the Father's glory (luminous mysteries); through Jesus' saving passion and death (sorrowful mysteries); and through the triumph of the Lord over sin and death (glorious mysteries).

By allowing Mary to help us to reflect prayerfully on these events in the life of Christ, we begin to “imitate what they contain.” For example, the first joyful mystery is the Annunciation. As we greet Mary and ask her intercession, we ponder the news that the angel Gabriel brought — the birth of the Savior. We should be moved to give thanks and praise to God for loving the world so much that he sent us his only Son (cf. Jn 3:16). We should also ponder Mary's response to this astonishing news: “Let it be done to me according to thy word!”

When we pray each successive Hail Mary attentively, we always receive some benefit for our spiritual life. The Good News that the angel brought might dispel our gloomy outlook and rekindle our Christian hope. The response of Mary might challenge our tendency to be a Christian on our own terms, not the Lord's.

As we enter into the mysteries of Christ's life, we also “obtain what they promise” — first and foremost the blessedness and joy of growing in the likeness of Christ. This overarching blessing is specified in the 15 promises of the Blessed Mother to those who pray the rosary, as promoted by the Dominican order — promises that strengthen our hope for eternal life and that give us encouragement in the misfortunes and challenges of life.

In this month of May — and in every month thereafter — let us put our K of C rosaries to good use!
